

AGRICULTURE IN PICTURES

Subsistence farming

Ox ploughing common in Teso

Picking coffee berries: Common in Masaka, Rakai, Mbale, Mukono, Luweero, Nakaseke

Picking cotton lint: Common in Kasese, Nebbi, Lira, Gulu, Kitugum, Masindi, Namasagali

Cotton plants: The white tissue is called cotton lint

Ripe coffee berries

Happy Coffee farmer

Dried Cloves

Powdered Cloves for spices

Tea plucking/picking: It commonly grown in Kabarole, Mityana, Buikwe, and Nakigalala at Kajjansi, Bushenyi, Kericho and Usambara foothills, Tea grows in acidic soils.

Tea plucking/picking at Luwala and Kasaku tea estates in Buikwe district

Subsistence farmer

Ox ploughing

A spraying tractor

A combined harvester

Sun flower plants used for making cooking oil: Grown in Gulu, Kiryandongo, Kamuli

Millet plant

Millet bread (Kalo)

Finger Millet

Sorghum plant (Omuwemba/Bel)

Sorghum plants

Sorghum Bread

Ugali meal

Tractor

Cotton farmers happy with their harvest: Cotton is used for making the following below

Uses of cotton and many more others such as dressing woods, making pads

Rubber plant nursery bed

Tapping Rubber

Tapping rubber from the rubber tree: Milky substance is also called Paala locally used for mending bicycle tyres

Collecting the Laxet together

Tapping rubber

Rubber in Uganda is commonly grown in Mabira forest and it is used to make the following below:

Vanilla plants: Commonly grown in Luwero, Mukono, Buikwe and its used for making spices

Goat rearing: Common in Sembabule, Baale, Nakaseke, Luwero, Nakasongola

Simsim plant

Simsim ball & making cooking oil

Cocoa nuts plants common along the coast of East Africa

 pixers®

Cocoa nuts and cocoa nut juice

Happy Banana farmer

Transporting coffee

Roasted coffee beans

Coffee beverage

Wattle tree: Used for leather tanning

Clove tree at coast of East Africa

Pineapple plantation

Pyrethrum plants

Tobacco plants

Drones spraying tea at Kericho in Kenya

Simsim (Sesame) plant

Loading Bananas in Mbarara